One That Will Convince the Most Skeptical Norway Reader.

Cures that last are cures that count.

Doan's Kidney Pills make thorough cures.

The following case is typical. Norway residents should be convinced.

The testimony is confirmed—the cure lasted.

Proof like this cannot be ignored.

Mrs. P. A. Walker, Cottage St., Norway, Me., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills some time ago and they greatly benefited me. My case was not serious, but I had symptoms of kidney complaint and decided to try a good remedy, I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Stone's Drug Store. A short time after using them I felt better in every way."

The above statement was given July 24, 1908, and on July 13, 1911, Mrs. Walker said: "Although three years have passed since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me, I have been as free from kidney trouble, as if I had never had it." 52-1

Numerical Enigma.

The answer contains 20 letters, and is a quotation from the Bible.

1. 28, 24, 34, is custom or fashion.

10, 15, 8, 49, is in a short time.

25, 30, 18, 1, is to labor.

14, 41, 11, 4, is to lay up.

15, 33, 22, 1, is a part of the face.

20, 36, 18, 1, is to decorate.

21, 16, 28, 23, is to beat or handle roughly.

22, 30, 45, 4, is to conceal.

23, 34, 35, 3, is to bite repeatedly.

24, 37, 24, 1, is to brandish.

40, 14, 47, is to rave or stray.

2, 43, 17, is the break of day.

Send the answer on or before Jan. 20, to Edwin R. Briggs, West Bethel, Maine.

The answer to the enigma printed in the Advertiser dated Dec. 1st is:

"Hope is the dream of a waking man."

Seven sent the correct solution in the order here given.

1. Mrs. Leon K. Dow, Waltham, Mass.

2. Mrs. Nellie Brown, North Bridgton.

3. Mrs. Guy A. Buck, Norway.

4. Miss Mary Bryant, Portland.

5. Howard K. Buck, South Harrison.

6. C. A. Haskell, Norway.

7. North Norway, Norway.

Now I will give you a few hints to aid you in solving this week's enigma. Don't mark down morn for "the break of day," toil for "labor," gain for "to lay up," whip or lash for "to beat," brow for "a part of the face," nor chew for "to bite repeatedly." Be sure you guess the right words, and you will have the answer.

The strongest wind that we have had for years was Friday, Dec. 29. It was what the Irishman would call a "harry-cane."

Mrs. Mary Murphy of South Boston and her sister, Mrs. Jennie Dennings of Bath visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bryan, Christmas.

Guy Tower, who is a carpenter, is learning the blacksmith trade. He has shed several yoke of oxen this season without laming one of them. He has built a new stable the past year and a new hen house. All that is now lacking is the bird.

Our school teacher, Wynne Brown, had a Christmas tree at the schoolhouse last Friday evening for the enjoyment of the scholars. All in the place were invited by this teacher to come and help make the evening a pleasant one for the children. Although the wind blew a gale a good number were present.

The scholars all spoke nice pieces. They all had good training, which showed they had good training from their teacher. The Christmas tree looked very nice. The scholars also did some very nice drawing on the blackboard, Christmas bells, and Santa Claus giving presents and an open fire place with a red and white striped chimney.

READ THIS EVIDENCE "I started last spring to raise a big onion crop, and notwithstanding the dryest season for years, I harvested 350 bushels on one-half acre. I used a fair amount of stable dressing and one-half ton of your Potato Fertilizer—also my potatoes were a good crop, yielding a bushel from eight hills on part of the field. I consider your Fertilizer the best I ever used."—A. ANDERSON, Lakeville, Mass.

"I used five tons of your Swift's Potato Fertilizer last season on 3 acres, and got a crop of 1000 bushels of nice potatoes, and naturally I am well pleased with the results."—G. K. LINNELL, Stetson, Maine.

FRYEBURG CENTER.

Mrs. Mary S. Chase Chandler.

Mrs. Mary S. Chase Chandler died of heart failure and old age in Fryeburg, Me., Dec. 28, at the age of 88 years.

She was born in Fryeburg, Nov. 9, 1823 the daughter of Seth and Betsy Shirley Chase.

She married Joseph Chandler, April 18, 1842.

Mrs. Chandler lived in Fryeburg till Nov. 20, 1903, when she moved to Fryeburg.

She leaves a daughter, Mary Elizabeth Chandler, who married Dr. Orlando W. Charles of Fryeburg, Nov. 21, 1883. They have resided in Fryeburg since that date.

The burial was in Fryeburg village cemetery, New Year's day.

C. P. Gray made a trip to Portland, Me., on Monday.

Bertha Meserve of the village was recent guest of her friend, Sybil Barker.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Goodridge attended a dance at East Fryeburg, Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. French Barker returned Saturday from a week's visit in Farmington.

Mrs. E. Goodridge and Mrs. M. Chandler had a sleigh ride Thursday afternoon and called on Mrs. Fred Holt.

Stilman Barker will cut and draw some timber for Mrs. Amelia Walker, of Lovell this winter. John Gray will assist him.

Almon Smart is cutting and hauling timber on the J. E. Hutchins lot for David Bradley. Everett Goodridge is working for him.

Mr. and Mrs. Hobbs at town farm had a Christmas tree Thursday evening for the inmates, Fred and B. H. The tree was loaded with presents from friends, far and near and was much enjoyed by the boys.

WEST FRYEBURG.

Mrs. Abbie Waterhouse spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. Norman Charles, at the village.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Eastman have been guests at their son's, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Eastman's, for a few days.

Kate Hill, who is a nurse in "Memorial Hospital," North Conway, has been recuperating at the home of her sister, Mrs. James Boutwell.

Another year with its varied changes has passed and we enter on a new year. How many of us will be spared to welcome the year of 1912 remains to be seen.

Callista Andrews of Castine Normal school received a very fine Christmas present from her aunt in Danvers, Mass. She was spending the holiday recess at her home here, when the piano came Xmas morning.

Our section with the adjoining neighborhood of East Conway experienced one of the hardest winds, Dec. 28, that was ever known here. It did much damage to timber in the East Conway district. It seemed to come in a vein, leveling all in its path.

A few mornings ago as James Boutwell came out of his house, he saw a crow he noticed an owl flying over with something in its claws apparently too heavy for his progress. Mr. Boutwell being curious to learn what his game might be, watched to see the owl alight with his prey, but following saw the owl drop a partridge, large and plump, directly in his path, the owl then alighting in a pine in the edge of the woods. The owl went breakfastless while Mr. Boutwell secured the game, but not alive.

Many owners of tracts of pine land in this locality including the eastern part of Conway, N. H., are heavy losers by the frightful wind storm of last week Thursday and Friday. Of these Richard Webster, Arthur Shirley, Waldo McArthur, G. M. White, the Kall Brothers, E. Flint, Raymond Ballard and Charles Page are reported as suffering losses aggregating three or four hundred thousand but it may be a little less when marketed as it will be as soon as possible. The work of clearing the fallen timber is already begun. The wreckage is said to be fearful to contemplate. In this immediate section the damage seems confined to the breaking off of large limbs of trees by the roadside, in some places interfering temporarily with travel.

The high wind of last Friday, blew in another window at the Baptist church. The front one was blown in last winter so that now there are the upper halves of two windows boarded up. Ferns.

There is no common plant which is known so little about by the average country man or woman as the fern. To most of us they are simply ferns or perhaps "brakes" and that is all that is known about one of the loveliest creations of nature.

Compared with the flowering plants the fern tribe is very small which makes it more interesting for study, and the finding of a new species of importance seemingly.

If one depended upon the common botany for the classification of ferns, it would be a difficult task but with the aid of an illustrated fern book, it becomes a fascinating study.

The book which I have is "How to Know the Ferns" by Frances Theodora Parsons. It may not group the ferns in the scientific way according to Gray's manual but in a very convenient manner for the beginner.

Below is the list of ferns which I identified last summer. Perhaps it will interest someone to find a larger number which will afford pleasure as well as profit.

"Profit?" "Yes, profit." You fat women, you don't you take up some kind of nature study, instead of embroidering those countless stitches?

You thin pale women, why don't you get out into the pure sweet air which you are needing so much?

Someone has said something like this: "If you can not change your place it is useless to change your mind." There is as much use to change your place unless you change your mind and are still carrying around the old cares, worries and pains.

There are many inexpensive ways of getting a change in mind and body.

One pleasant way is the study of nature, be it of flowers, ferns, bugs, rocks, or the starry skies at night.

What glorious air one cannot help breathing when out face to face with the starry skies!

(Never mind if it does crook your neck.)

What feelings of awe, reverence and wonder when one holds communion with a thousand shining suns scattered through unfathomable, unthinkable space!

One ever wonders, when looking up at the stars, what the profoundest scholars are still wondering and groping for—the great Mover, Creator, the Spirit that governs the whirling, countless suns and worlds.

Below is the fern list:

Christmas Fern
Interrupted Fern
Chimney Fern
Long Sisk Fern
Royal Fern
Brake
Lady Fern
Fern-leaved Grape Fern
Polypody
Spittlewood Fern
Evergreen Wood Fern
New York Fern
Hay Scented Fern
Oak Fern
Clinton's Wood Fern
Marsh Fern
Ternate Grape Fern
Maiden Hair Fern
Green Spleenwort
Rattle Snake Fern

War Declared.

Catarrh Germs Must Be Conquered or Health Will Be Destroyed.

If you have catarrh you must vanquish an army of persistent, destructive microbes before you can get rid of it.

You might as well choose your weapons, declare war and annihilate this army of catarrh germs right now.

Stomach dosing won't kill them; neither will sprays or douches.

HYOMEI, a pleasant, antiseptic, germ destroying air breathed over the entire membrane will put catarrh germs out of business in short order.

HYOMEI (pronounce it High-o-me) is guaranteed by Frank Kimball, proprietor of the Noyes Drug Store to end catarrh, asthma, bronchitis, coughs, colds and croup, or money back. If you own a little HYOMEI hard rubber pocket inhaler you can get a separate bottle of HYOMEI for only 50 cents. If you haven't an inhaler buy a complete outfit that only costs $1.00.

WEST FRYEBURG.

Mrs. Mary Gordon Walker.

Sunday, Dec. 16th, at the Walker homestead in West Fryeburg, occurred the death of Mrs. Mary Walker, widow of Jeremiah H. Walker, after two months of suffering from a fractured hip the result of a fall.

Surgical aid and efficient nursing attendance could alleviate in a measure the pain endured, though frequently acute, but could not save the precious life from slipping away, and in the home to which she came a bride when nineteen years of age, surrounded by those nearest and dearest to her, "Aunt Mary" quietly fell into the sleep "God gives to His beloved."

Mary Gordon was the daughter of William and Dorothy Farrington Gordon and was born eighty-four years ago in the charmingly rural town of Stow of which the Gordons and Farringtons were among the earliest settlers. The ancestral Gordon homestead now owned and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dresser, the latter a niece of Mary Walker, was her home until her marriage.

Walker's education was received in the schools of Haddam and her home training fitted her for the faithful wife and devoted mother she steadfastly endeavored to be and even her later years neighbors and friends have sought her kindly sympathy and helpfulness in times of sickness, and these she gave freely.

Her faculties were retained to a wonderful degree even through the weeks of her mortal illness when conversing with those to whom she was known her mind never lost its alertness or poise. Mrs. Walker was not without her share of the sorrows incident to Earth life, having lost three children by a prevalent dysentery, their deaths occurring at brief intervals. Her husband died nearly twenty years ago.

She is survived by one son, Edwin L. of West Fryeburg, and a grandson, Elmer Walker, son of the former, both of whom occupy the ancestral homestead and carry on their fine farm. With them sixty-five years of her life were happily spent.

The funeral was at the home on Wednesday, Dec. 18th, Rev. B. N. Stone being the officiating clergyman, using the impressive ritual of the New Church. Mr. Stone spoke in terms highly eulogistic of Mrs. Walker to the many friends gathered to gaze their last look on the face of Aunt Mary Walker's surrounded by the beautiful flowers upon the casket. Brief prayer and benediction closed the obsequies at the home and many followed the body to the cemetery in the family lot at the West Fryeburg cemetery. The bearers were Dean A. Ballard, N. C. Howard, James H. Meserve and George E. Coleman.

Louise Ballard attended a meeting of the State Grange held at Manchester, N. H. Miss Ballard is lecturer of the local grange having its meetings at Union hall in East Conway, N. H.

Dec. 20th, the regular meeting of the Stirling Literary club was held at the home of Mrs. E. E. Walker. While the attendance was large there was no lack of interest in the program. One member, who was prevented from attending, sent her contribution to the order of exercises, which was read by Mr. Keen read from a magazine, "Christmas and its significance," by Edith Land. One of Mrs. Meserve's selections was an account of Christmas on a United States battleship at Fort Fisher in 1864, Robley Evans commanding. An essay of the late Julia Ward Howe on the "Christmas spirit in the national life," was read by another member. The lessons in American history were read by Mrs. Walker and Mrs. McKee. Altogether the afternoon of a pleasant day was pleasantly spent and at 4 p. m. adjournment to Jan. 2, 1912, was taken.

Mrs. Charles Andrews spent a part of the week in Bridgton with her sister, Mrs. Howard Jones, a former member of the Stirling club.

Mrs. Wood made some remarks to the children in regard to our reason for keeping Christmas in her usual graceful and pleasing manner.

The tree followed by refreshments consisting of apples, baked cake and chocolate. Attention was then given to the tree which was prettily decorated with lights and candles and well laden with gifts for each one present.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

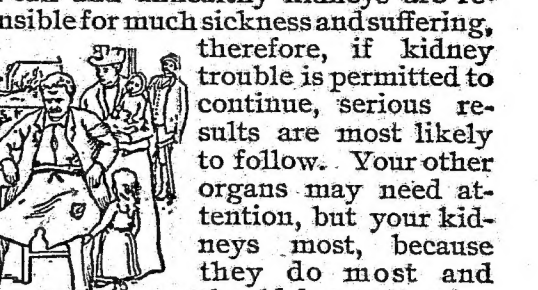

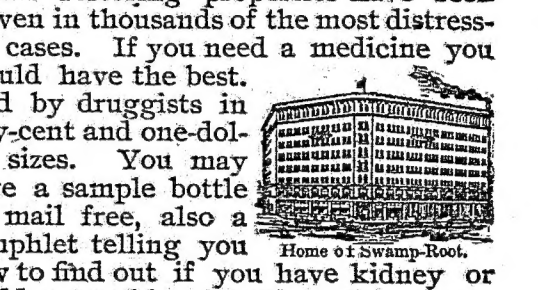

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for much sickness and suffering, therefore, if kidney trouble is permitted to continue, serious results are most likely to follow. Your other organs may need attention, but your kidneys most, because they do most and should have attention first. Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. A trial will convince you of its great merit.

The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest because its remarkable health restoring properties have been proven in thousands of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best.

Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—if you do you will be disappointed.

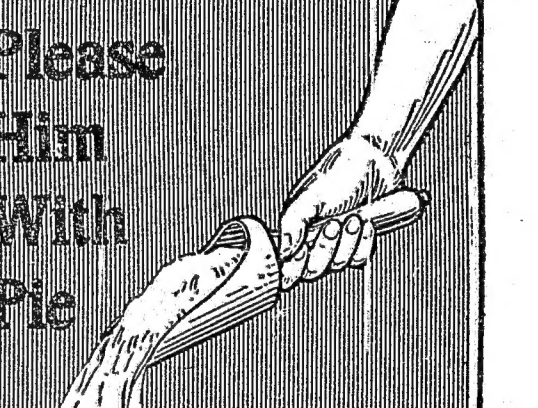

Safe Treatment for Headache.

The rational treatment for headache is to get at the cause, if possible, and remove it. Headache is only a symptom of trouble somewhere in the system, and dosing with tablets or powders containing acetanilid or other coal-tar derivatives which stop the pain temporarily but weaken the heart, is at once unsafe and unwise. The headache may come from your eyes, then a good oculist can help you at once with proper eyeglasses; but if it comes with burning tongue, loss of appetite, nausea, and constipation, it is usually the result of disordered digestion, or torpid liver, and one or two doses of L. F. Atwood's Medicine will speedily help you by carrying off impurities and restoring the clogged digestive organs to their normal activity. In using this old reliable remedy, you take no chances of weakening the heart's action.

It has a record of sixty years as a safe headache remedy. The "L. F." Medicine Co., Portland, Maine.

FRYEBURG.

89 Years of Age.

The friends of William Durgin were invited by his landlady, Mrs. Frank Thorne of the Argus Not, to help cheer his 89th birthday anniversary.

At Mr. Durgin's reception Saturday, Mrs. Martha Charles was present, whose birthday was on the same day. She was born in Stowe, at the end of the road, 87 years ago. She is truly 87 years young. Looking at her smooth, fair face, brown hair and clear eyes, it is hard to believe she lived in the days when cooking was done before the fire in a baker, and spinning wheel and looms were in fashion. Tobias Eastman was present, also having a birthday. Mrs. Mary Hastings, another of Fryeburg's brown-haired ladies, was warmly welcomed. She was Mary O'Brien of Cornish and born Jan. 30, 1827. A letter was received from Mrs. Georgiana Barrow, a schoolmate, now 84 years of age. Letters also were read from Miss Stark and Miss Shedd of Washington and from Mrs. Abby Warren of Fryeburg.

A large birthday cake was served to the guests with other delicious refreshments. Flowers and many remembrances were received.

In 1852 he married Olive Phenix and they went to live in the old home in the village. The farm was a mile and a half from the village on the highway to the Saco. Mrs. Durgin died ten years ago. Mr. Durgin lived in the house where he was born until it burned in 1906. He still owns the farm and says he shall not part with it as long as he lives.

Mr. Durgin went to Fryeburg Academy in the days of the famous teacher, Mrs. Richardson. Hon. Parris Gibson, senator from Montana, was a classmate of his. About this time many prominent men attended school, among them, Gen. Rufus Ingalls, James Ripley Osgood and his sister, Kate Putnam Osgood, A. A. Strout and Stephen Henry Chase.

Daniel Merriman and his wife, Mrs. Helen (B. Galloway) Merriman, and friends, all of Massachusetts have been spending the holidays at their summer home, Stonehurst, which is situated at Intervale, N. H. Mrs. Merriman is the general manager of the North Conway Memorial hospital.

The Wind. A wind, estimated at 80 miles an hour, has been blowing for 24 hours Friday and Saturday with no let-up, at Fryeburg. The top of the Chatham house was blown off and the stage turned bottom side up.

Percy Emerson, the driver, a woman and three cases of eggs were upset. No injury except to the eggs. Ray Ballard happened along with a load of logs and gathered up the mail bags and carried them to the Fryeburg postoffice.

OPTIMISM IS A TREMENDOUS HELP TO SUCCESS

Personal appearance is another big factor.

Wear clothes that won't get in your way; that don't keep you down.

Fashionable cut, of course. But, more particularly, clothes that reflect the thorough elegance of high-grade materials and high-skilled tailoring; clothes that not only have STYLE, but will keep it.

Let us show you our KIRSCHBAUM Clothes. They illustrate exactly what we mean.

KIRSCHBAUM fabrics are guaranteed ALL-WOOL, KIRSCHBAUM Suits and Overcoats are strictly HAND-MADE. They are the quality clothes.

Values in Suits and Overcoats, at $15, $18, $20, and $22, that are unsurpassable anywhere by anybody.
